What's New In Free Your Music (former STAMP)?

List the current songs being played by 'you' and 'they' on all supported Music Apps. Profile Music Apps and the individual Artists/Albums they contain. Get Album Art downloads (for artists who provide it) for any Artists/Albums in your library. Get artist/album/track information - including song and album IDs. Get comprehensive Artist/Album/Music Manager/Playlist information for any Artist/Album or playlist. Browse artist/album/album-track/playlist/CD/Music Manager/Artist Search through the full Artist/Album/Music Manager tree. Write and edit playlists. Post playlists for others to listen too - or play them live, when the app is running in the background. Share playlists, Artist/Album information and Artist/Album/Playlist/CD Artwork, directly with Facebook, Twitter, Tumblr or Email. Upload music from your PC to Artist/Album in Music Manager. Automatically "pin" an artist/album to the home screen for easy access. [media=0] Screenshots Walkthrough Install Free Your Music Click the button on the top-right to download and install Free Your Music. After the installation is complete, click the icon on the taskbar to run the app. Give the app permissions Now that Free Your Music is installed, you can configure the app using its settings menu. Log in using your Spotify or Deezer credentials if you use those services. Once logged in, Free Your Music will request permission to access your playlists on these services. Tap the appropriate button to grant the permission. Start transferring playlists Now you can begin copying the playlists from your Spotify or Deezer accounts. Either log in to all the services you want to transfer playlists or create the account only if you haven't used it before. Open the app and either click on the "Categorized Services" button on the top or the "Recents Playlists" menu. Scroll down and select a service from the list. Select a playlist and tap the "Transfer" button. If Free Your Music prompts you to log in or create an account, tap the appropriate button. Note that you can also import CSV playlist files by dragging and
